AD VITAM PARAMUS

20 July 2021

Dear Parents,

End of Summer Term 2021 Newsletter

How do I sum up the year? I hope that those of you who were with us to experience sports day last week will have soaked up a little of the Nanstallon spirit that has continued to burn bright for our children throughout the twists and turns that all of us have negotiated again this year. Without sounding overly clichéd, your children represent hope and all that is good and it is such a privilege to spend each school day with them.

There have been numerous highlights this year and it was great to be reminded of so many of these as I read through each child's personal letter year report. But time marches on and another summer is upon us. We wish every success to our year 6 pupils as they take a significant step into a new school and key stage. We are proud of the young citizens they've grown into.

September Arrangements:

On Monday 6 September, our new school year commences.

School Day Timings:

There are only minor changes to note in blue:

Year 4, 5 and 6 (Mrs Winch and Mr Langdon's classes) continue to arrive at school at 8:30am to commence lessons at 8:45am. This is the same – continue to drop off in the car park and enter by the main entrance

Reception, Year 1, 2 and 3 (Mrs Brown, Miss Finlay and Miss Evans' classes) should arrive at 8:45am to commence lessons at 9am. This is different for Y3 but the same for YR, 1 & 2*

Reception, Year 1, 2 and 3 (Mrs Brown, Miss Finlay and Miss Evans' classes) should drop off in the car park and go through the green gates.

Mrs Winch, the school SENCo and I will greet children and parents each morning.

3pm – Mrs Winch and Mr Langdon's class finish the school day and meet parents on the front playground.

3.10pm – Miss Evans, Miss Finlay and Mrs Brown's classes finish the school day. Miss Evans children should be met in the front playground and Miss Finlay and Mrs Brown's should be met by parents in the large playground.

Uniform and School Lunches

New uniform will be ready to collect from Miss Fraser in the first week back.

There is a new Autumn Menu on the website and on ParentPay. Miss Fraser will send a reminder to order lunches prior to the term starting.

Finally, my sincere thanks and gratitude to all our caring staff and supportive parents. A huge WELL DONE to all our children for their enthusiasm, participation, contribution and all their achievements. All of you are an intricate part of the web that makes Nanstallon School a special place to learn, grow and play.

Have a lovely summer!

Warmest regards,

Ben Stephenson
